

Taxpayers See 14% Tax Increase; Ask Review

Although the population of Contra Costa County has increased only 1.7 per cent during the past year, the proposed 1956-57 budget has increased 13.1 per cent during the same period, the board of directors of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association pointed out yesterday.

"This budget increase has come about in spite of a 35 per cent increase in county assessed valuations last year and a 5.7 per cent increase this year. Revenue from sources other than property taxes (principally the uniform county sales tax) will give the county a 9.3 per cent increase in these monies," Executive Director Harry L. Morrison Jr. said.

"In spite of the substantial increase in revenues greatly in excess of the population growth, county property taxes will still rise 14.88 per cent if the present proposed budget is adopted, Monday."

"The required increase of over 12 per cent in the property tax rate, with the increases in both assessed valuation and revenue other than taxes, indicates that the Board of Supervisors should seriously review all departmental budgets showing undue increases, to bring the increase in expenditures more realistically in line with the growth of population and wealth of the county," the governing board of the Taxpayers Association concluded.

HEARING ON THE tentative county budget for the 1956-57 fiscal year is scheduled by the Board of Supervisors for 10 a.m. Monday, at an adjourned meeting in Martinez.

In a letter to the Board of Supervisors, President Bruce S. Howard of the Taxpayers Association listed the following as illustrating "the problem which must be met":

"The expenditure budget shows an increase of $3,258,768, or 13.1 per cent.

"2. An increase of $1,788,660, or 14.88 per cent more than was

Departmental Hikes Cited

In its study of the proposed 1956-57 county budget, the board of directors of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association has called upon the Board of Supervisors to review the following departmental budgets to determine if further savings could be made:

Roads and bridges, up $1,028,267.

Health Department, up $470,532.

Hospital, up $247,091.

Airports, up $113,793.

Detention Home, up $70,383.

Recreation, up $92,199.

Sheriff, up $110,600.

Building maintenance, up $183,739.

Unappropriated reserve, up $59,472.

raised by local property taxes in 1955-56, will be required to finance the budget if it is adopted at its present level.

3. "A TAX RATE of $2.191, representing an increase of 24 cents or 12.3 per cent will be necessary to meet the tax requirement of the preliminary budget exclusive of the library fund.

4. At the same time revenues from sources other than property taxation show a $1,024,851 increase or 9.3 per cent and assessed valuations of property on the secured tax roll show an increase of $3,826,087, or 5.7 per cent over the tax base for the previous fiscal year. (The valuations used in this calculation include those released by the State Board of Equalization covering the utility roll.) Thus, we have the true valuation on which the tax rate will be based.

5. In addition to the 24 cent property tax rate increase, an estimated $400,000 in revenue from a new sales tax in the unincorporated area of Contra Costa County has been included in the revenue structure. Revenues from sources other than taxes would have shown only about a $600,000 increase had not the sales tax been used.

6. While expenditures show a 13.1 per cent increase and money to be raised by local taxation a 14.88 per cent advance, population for Contra Costa County has advanced only 1.7 per cent, or 5800 persons from January 1, 1955 to January 1, 1956."

All this, Howard stated, "indicates first, that all possible budget reductions must be obtained, and secondly, that every effort be made to increase revenue estimates in sources other than taxation to the maximum that this budget can stand without danger to the county financial structure."

Contra Costa is Lagging In Industry, Builders Told

"Due to the lack of support of the County Development Associations or their local Chambers of Commerce, Contra Costa County has not obtained its full share of industry expanding to the west coast," Tod Bates told the General Contractors Association, August 9.

A manager of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, Bates spoke, after it was announced that Jack Marchant, Lafayette builder has been appointed a director of the Association.

BATES SAID that since 1946 more than 82 industries have located in Richmond. He pointed out that although Richmond has suffered a loss of population from its peak period, it is at present establishing a base from which it is growing at this present time.

"Seventy four acres have been purchased in Richmond by Safeway as a distribution center," Bates stated. "It is anticipated that at least one thousand people will be employed at this site."

"United Grocers have 34 acres under construction that will employ 325 to 350 people," Bates stated.

"Competition is extremely keen in locating industry in various areas. If you can get industry into a community and broaden the tax base, the residents gain from such an approach."

"CONTRA COSTA County has one of the greatest potentials of any county in the Bay Area. However, due to lack of support of the County Development Associations or their local Chambers of Commerce, Contra Costa County has not obtained its full share of industry expanding to the West Coast."

Wesley Busch, secretary-manager of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce stated that 134 acres were annexed to the city of Antioch in the last year.

Busch pointed out that in addition to the industries that have been located in Antioch in the past, new industries such as Kaiser Gypsum, Dupont and Crown Zellerbach are locating plants.

The contemplated increase in the population of Antioch will be over 4000 and will require over 1500 new houses and over 50 new retail stores.

Group to Help Public to Learn Safety Principles

A program of safety education projects covering every phase of accident prevention in Lafayette and throughout Contra Costa County will be activated after the opening of schools, according to William Shannon, Lafayette chairman of the Citizens Action Force for Safety.

This group is now engaged in a public appeal for budget funds to finance a full-scale operation for the Contra Costa Safety Council.

Shannon stated that preliminary planning meetings have been held and that an emergency meeting of all persons interested in a comprehensive campaign against accidents in this critical area will be held Monday evening, August 20, at the headquarters of General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, 3462 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Representatives of all Lafayette clubs and organizations are urged to attend. The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. and is open to the public.

Objectives of the current safety appeal are to establish a permanent safety council headquarters in this area under the direction of a qualified professional safety director, and to provide the county with a continuous, comprehensive flow of safety education through all available channels, according to Shannon. Present plans call for the opening of a permanent office by October 1, he said.

A number of projects are planned for immediate activation after a director is selected.

A Communities Coordinating Committee will be formed to discuss area safety problems and develop programs for their solution through group effort.

A Business and Industry Safety Contest and Vehicular Fleet Safety Contest will be inaugurated to stimulate safety among employees and professional drivers, Shannon revealed.

Free Vaccine Shots are Scheduled

Free vaccination shots to prevent polio will be given tomorrow in Pleasant Hill, and Wednesday in Walnut Creek, and diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and smallpox shots will be given Wednesday in Walnut Creek.

The County Health Department announced that its station in Pleasant Hill will be at the Community Baptist Church, 924 Pleasant Hill Road, and in Walnut Creek at St. Paul's Episcopal Parish Hall, 1924 Walnut Avenue.

Polio vaccine is available to persons age 6 months to 19 years. Appointments are not required. Children must be accompanied by parents, according to Dr. H. K. Blum, health officer.

Neophytes Add To JayCee Roster

At the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce regular meeting Monday at El Nido it was announced that three new members were accepted into the Jaycees.

Gene Richard, George Vicenti and Roderick Macdonald were welcomed.

The first two represented firm memberships on the part of the Bank of America and Rett-White Ford in Lafayette.

Featured speaker of the evening was Fishing Expert Art Evans. Evans instructed the group on what equipment to use and how to use it, and proceeded to demonstrate his teaching by putting on a casting exhibition at the El Nido pool.

It was announced that the featured speaker for the next meeting to be held on August 27 at 8 p.m. will be Herr von Knoop, Adjutant Vice Counsel of West Germany.

Herr von Knoop will show films and speak on the redevelopment and progress of West Germany since the war.

Martinez Looms As Top Prospect For VA Hospital

While both the Veterans Administration and local residents await final decision on where the VA hospital will finally be located, officials in Washington have shown increased interest in the Martinez area as a prospective site.

Although the condemnation suit instituted against the originally selected Moraga site has not been dropped, the VA has given evidence that it will back up its statement that it will not build the $8 million hospital "where we are not wanted."

Veterans Administration officials last week indicated that there were six sites presently under consideration, and one of these is on the John Peralta Ranch just off the Arnold Industrial Highway.

According to a spokesman of the present VA hospital in Oakland, which is to be replaced by the new structure, "heavy consideration seems to be centering around the Martinez area."

This would indicate that the Pereira Ranch site is one of the leading prospects.

Meanwhile, the Martinez City Council is acting to better the chances of that area.

Councilmen, upon learning of this new development, passed a resolution which would extend the city water and sewer lines without cost to the government except connection charges.

This would involve extending a 10-inch water line about 1800 feet and a proposed 12-inch line about 4800 feet to the property.

Another recent development has virtually eliminated Walnut Creek as a site candidate. When VA officials visited here last month in their quest for a location, no indication was given that a place in Walnut Creek had been singled out as a possibility.

Councilmen generally felt that there is no suitable spot in the city for such a hospital and its facilities.

The final choice is expected within the next two months, according to San Franks, manager of the Oakland hospital.

Traffic Engineer To Leave Post For Ga. Position

Basil Andrews, County Traffic Engineer since July, 1953, has accepted the position of Director of Traffic Engineering with the Metropolitan Planning Commission of Savannah, Georgia.

This position was filled as a result of nationwide recruitment. Mr. Andrews was flown to Savannah for his final interview.

Candidates for the position came from throughout the United States and included several holders of Master of Science Degrees from Yale University's Department of Traffic Engineering.

Andrews is a graduate of Electrical Engineering from the University of California at Berkeley, and a graduate study in the Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering at the University.

In June of this year he became registered as a professional Civil Engineer in California.

Andrews is married and has two children. He expects to leave for his new position on August 25.

Supervisors Are Against 2-County Transit District

Calling it "taxation without representation," the County Board of Supervisors on Wednesday instructed the district attorney's office to seek any legal means possible by which the two-county transit district may be effectively opposed.

The move came after they heard arguments against the district, to be voted upon November 5, by Marston Campbell, San Francisco attorney.

Chairman H. L. Cummings told Campbell that he was personally against the district, but added that he was not sure what the county supervisors can do about it, since the matter is already on the ballot.

HE ADDED that Contra Costa officials have had little say in the formation of boundaries or other steps taken, and that he was not at all sure that the district has the "blessing" of the nine-county transit system, as claimed in some quarters.

Assistant District Attorney Thomas McBride said that the Alameda County board's organization of the district, including Contra Costa but without Contra Costa counsel, is "unusual." He added that there will be a "polka dot" effect, when areas which don't favor by a majority the district are granted exclusion.

It was suggested by Supervisor Ivan Goyak of Richmond that after the district attorney's report, that the board should meet with mayors of the county to seek means of fighting the district.

It was pointed out that of a proposed seven-man board to govern the district, Contra Costa is assured only one representative.

ALAMEDA COUNTY will get three, has a good chance to get another two "at-large" directors, and has half of another "ward," the geographical unit from which the directors will come.

Contra Costa will get one ward, with one director, and a chance to elect another director in the split ward.

Campbell earlier in the meeting told the board that the "down town Oakland merchants" will benefit most from the district, and Contra Costans the least.

Association Plans Speedup Of City Petition Campaign

Streamlining and speeding of the petition drive aimed at getting the Board of Supervisors to schedule an election on Orinda incorporation will be a major topic at the meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee at 8 p.m. Monday at Orinda School.

This was announced at the association board meeting last Monday night at Orinda School, after Chairman Paul Pollaczek of the incorporation committee reported on progress to date.

PRESIDENTS and other representatives of neighborhood improvement associations are being invited to the Civic Affairs meeting, President Mel Arighi of the Orinda Association said.

"They and the delegates to Civic Affairs, together with our incorporation committee, will discuss the problem," Arighi stated.

"Approximately 2000 signatures have been obtained thus far," Pollaczek reported.

"We want to try to get another 2000 signatures by the end of this month."

ALTHOUGH Pollaczek and the other directors said they were encouraged by the progress of the petition drive, they stressed the need for streamlining and speeding the effort, in view of the timetable envisioned by the Orinda Association and its incorporation committee.

As pointed out in the incorporation study committee's recent mimeographed report, and as repeatedly emphasized by association officials, the new city must be formed by February, 1957, in order to get on the 1957-58 county tax rolls.

However, Orinda Association leaders add that signing of the petitions now being circulated does not necessarily mean that the signer is in favor of incorporation. The petitions, they state, merely ask that an official election on the matter be scheduled.

POLLACZEK admitted Monday night that there are "big gaps" in the petition coverage in areas where residents have not yet been contacted by volunteer workers.

Ted Sanford, petition drive chairman, and F. A. Sawyer, incorporation committee co-chairman, have been away on vacation the past couple of weeks. In their absence, Ted May has been acting as chairman of the petition drive.

Required on the petitions, in order to qualify for the scheduling of an election, are the signatures of at least 25 per cent of the landowners in the proposed city, who must own enough land to account for at least 25 per cent of the assessed valuation of the land in that area.

At the eventual official election on incorporation, a simple majority vote is decisive.

The Orinda Association is on record in favor of incorporation.

Commuters Hear Transit Pros, Cons

The Contra Costa Commuters Association on Tuesday heard arguments for and against the proposed two-county transit district, to be on the November 6 ballot, but reserved a vote until next week.

In favor of the district, to include Alameda County and the western portions of Contra Costa were Robert E. Nisbet, Oakland deputy city attorney, and Clair MacLeod, chairman of the district organization committee.

NISBET SAID that 11 cities have passed resolutions favoring the measure, and that there will be a meeting Monday to nominate candidates for the district board of directors.

MacLeod assured the group that the district would be integrated into the Bay Area nine county transit system, if adopted.

The district would be "at best another bus line" the association was told by Harry Wade and Phillip Fliegely of the Greyhound Lines Association.

THEY ADDED that the present Greyhound facilities offers the commuting public in this area better and cheaper service than any system under public ownership.

At the meeting next week, the association members will also discuss possible directors for the district, should it be created in November.

The district has been opposed by the Walnut Creek city council in the central county.

Chamber to Hear Of PT-T Building

"How will the new Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's dial telephone building affect Orinda?"

This is the question that PT&T representative Howard Greenhagh will attempt to answer when he addresses the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at a chamber luncheon meeting at 12:15 Tuesday in the Casa Orinda.

Greenhagh will explain the structure and functions of the proposed building, and will point out the services it will render.

Arranging the chamber program is Dane Christiansen, another PT&T representative.

Sponsored by the Walnut Creek Area Junior Chamber of Commerce, the race will offer a purse to the winner, and a chance to contribute to the Handicapped Scouts, according to Tom Clarke, Junior Chamber president.

The local group was recently voted the outstanding Junior Chamber in California, regardless of size, during the San Francisco convention.

International Aspect of Rotary Convention Told

Highlights and activities of the 1956 International Rotary convention last May were revealed to members of the Orinda Rotary Wednesday by Jack Pedder, member of the Lafayette Rotary and convention delegate.

At the regular noon Rotary luncheon meeting at the Willow Inn, Pedder disclosed that he was but one of some 10,000 representatives from all over the world who attended the convention in Philadelphia.

As this area's representative, Pedder said that nearly all of the 99 nations involved in the Rotary movement had delegates attending the four-day assemblage.

Presiding over the Rotary meeting was Earl Cappel, who was temporary chairman replacing President Ramsay Underwood, who is currently vacationing near Mt. Shasta.

Program chairman for the day was Frank Shirley.

Tinted tootsies cause talk among tootsies

VILLAGE VIGNETTE . . . A lady in a car bearing an out-of-state license plate stopped at a local station to inquire the directions to "Smug Harbor." The attendant dutifully checked and told her there was a SNUG Harbor section, a little secluded spot snuggled in the hills off of La Espiral, above LaNoria.

When the tourist got the directions down pat, she thanked the station man, then smiled and said with a sigh . . . "I'd feel justified calling it SMUG Harbor if I lived in a place as pretty as this." (Thank you, Ma'am. Come Back Again!)

AROUND THE POOL . . . A bunch of children kept running over to where a pretty lady was sound asleep sunbathing. Each trip over the grass they gathered up a few more youngsters, who in V-formation, stood wide-eyed in wonder and whispers around the sleeping beauty.

The children stared and stared and STARED! A curious mother called her children back to learn that what enthralled the uiet spectators was the lady's absolutely fascinating toes! A pretty picture of SeaFoam green!

SUN FASHIONS, FUN FASHIONS . . . Over at Orinda Park Pool you'd recognize Ann Bailey by her "buttons 'n bows" hat . . . Elaine Hafner in a straw cloche festooned w/strawberries, Agnes Webster's deep tan shaded by a new umbrella hat . . . A visitor brim supporting a straw horse and other mexican mementos on a hat worn by Mary Sassone.

When it's hot at Sleepy Hollow Pool where the shade trees are still in their adobe cradles, a wide floppy-brimmed fringed straw like the one Barbara Franklin wears comes in handy . . . She bought hers in Acapulco! Jen Cantrell, recently back from Disneyland w/her family, wears a gayly-tinted-it-herself straw she brought back from the Islands last Fall to which she's sewn such Hawaiian reminders as a ukulele, a lei, a little grass shack!

Orinda Young Men To Meet Tuesday To Form JayCee

Members of the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday night with members of the community at 8 p.m. to organize a new Orinda JayCee.

The meeting will be held at the home of Horton Hill, 114 Overhill Drive, Orinda, and will feature a panel of speakers who will present the story of the Jaycees and the problems the new group can expect to meet.

IN HELPING to put the new organization on its feet, Hans Beez, president of the present Lafayette-Orinda group, Cameron Ashby, vice-president, James Dana, past president and Robert Hickey, past president, will address the assembly.

With each of the four taking one phase of the JayCee program, they will present the history of the national and local organization and methods of organizing the new club.

CLARK COLDREN, chairman of the extension committee of the new chapter, will preside over the meeting, at which a temporary chairman and organizational committees are to be appointed.

The Orinda Jaycee is to branch off from the present joint-community group, which will be re-formed into the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce. It would be formed as an entirely separate group, Coldren reported.

THE NEW organization is necessary, Coldren felt, because "there isn't any service club out there exclusively for young men."

"Both Lafayette and Orinda have community projects under way," he continued, "which require the full-time services of the organization."

Coldren also extended an invitation to attend the meeting to any young man between the ages of 21 and 35 in the Orinda area.

Orindans Didn't Increase Mail Output in July

For the first time in many years, Orindans, despite a population increase, didn't increase their mail output.

According to Mrs. Laura Mallary, Orinda postmaster, gross receipts of the post office, derived mostly from postage stamp sales, were almost the same last month as in July of 1955.

Having been the local postmaster for the past 10 years, Mrs. Mallary claims that this is the first time in her recollection that receipts did not increase in the second of two comparative months.

This, however, doesn't necessarily mean that Orindans are slacking off in their postal output. In fact, the last fiscal year, which ended in June, showed a 10 per cent increase over the 1955 gross.

"The slow-up in July," Mrs. Mallary claimed, "is only significant if the same trend is shown in months to come."

The usual monthly comparative increase, she said, is around 10 per cent.

MONEY SAVERS

Driving an automobile these days is expensive but some motorists waste money unnecessarily by the way they drive. There are four ways in which you can prolong the life of your car's engine and tires and at the same time save gasoline: 1. Avoid rapid acceleration when possible. 2. Don't pump the accelerator to start the engine. 3. Maintain a steady cruising speed on the highway. 4. Avoid sudden stops except in emergencies.

Ditch Collapse Fatal to Worker

Sam Steptoe, 42, an employee of an Oakland contracting firm, was killed Monday when buried under a half ton of earth while working in the Ranchito De Solano housing project in Vista Circle, Moraga.

Witnesses said Steptoe, a Berkeley resident and father of five children, was working behind a ditch-digging machine when a side of the ditch collapsed, burying him.

Rescue workers uncovered his head in five minutes and dug him out within 15 minutes, to no avail. The Moraga Fire Department, arriving on the scene, applied resuscitator without success. Steptoe's body was taken to the Judson Funeral Home in Oakland.

During her stay, she tried the "one arm bandits" for the first time, and struck it lucky! I've never had it so good, she claimed.

Due to the weather, which is always a good subject to start out on, the Water Ballet and Fashion Show, scheduled for the Carol Ranch last Sunday, has been cancelled until Sunday, August 26.

Mr. Mancini, owner of the popular swimming spot, regretfully informed all arrivals of the change in plans and we all hope "the third time is the charm" and that the 26th will be sunny and warm!

BROWNIE HELPERS Brownie Camp is over for another year, but 8 little Brownies had a very good week, under the leadership of Mrs. Donna Cole, of Rheem Boulevard.

Donna, who was able to take her two other children, drove the distance to the camp, which is located next to Buckeye Ranch, off Martinez Highway, each day, with one other mother helping with the transportation.

Girls participating were Kitty Cole, Jane Davis, Carolyn Lund, Karen Kelly, Collette Winther, Lind Thune, Gay Rohrer and Kathy Gensinger, who became a Girl Scout this summer.

The camp program was based on the Spanish theme, with the girls taking sestas, cookouts consisting of Spanish food, and their final day's fiesta, including a skit of Ferdinand the Bull.

An unofficial meeting of the new officers of the Mother's Club was called Monday morning at the home of President Donna Cole. Attending were Dee Davis, Betty Parker and Jo Rogers. Purpose of the meeting was to set a time for the first official directors conference.

The time set was for last night, at which meeting committees were set up, and the program for the year was outlined.

Sunday saw two boys from our area having a great time at Playland in San Francisco, at the expense of the Oakland Tribune.

David Tarpley of Rheem Boulevard and John Thune of Camino Pablo, both Oakland Tribune carriers, won enough extra points by getting subscriptions and vacation paks, to win a prize of a day at the beach, with tickets for rides and a steak dinner.

JACKPOT CHARMER A big thrill in the life of Mrs. Minifred Davies of Camino Pablo was the winning of two jackpots at the slot machines, this past weekend. Mrs. Davies went to Lake Tahoe with her sons, Kenneth and Walton and his wife, Betty, and spent several days at the summer home of another son, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Davies.

During her stay, she tried the "one arm bandits" for the first time, and struck it lucky! I've never had it so good, she claimed.

with her three children, flew to Los Angeles, where they acquired a new car, and drove on up the coast, stopping to see the Davis family and to make a fly-ing sightseeing trip around San Francisco on Sunday.

They are now on their way to New York, after spending about a month seeing this wonderful country of ours.

Arriving unexpectedly by plane from Honolulu to visit for a couple of weeks with his sons and daughters in the Bay Area, was Mr. John F. Glasky, father of Barney Glasky, of Rheem Boulevard.

Mr. Glasky, a retired Navy man, went to Honolulu to visit for a couple of months and liked it so much, he stayed for a couple of years. He lives in the Army-Navy Club in Honolulu and to date plans to remain there.

A University of California Extension Course, "Planning for Community Improvement 801," will be given in Room 7 at the Alhambra Union High School in Martinez on Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. starting September 13.

County to Have Agricultural Fair Exhibit

Art Seeley, agricultural commissioner for Contra Costa County, and the individual in charge of this county's exhibit at the State Fair, reports that besides showing samples of the many agricultural crops grow here, this year's display will also emphasize agricultural chemicals' contribution to California's agriculture.

The exhibit, says Seeley, will feature the use of agricultural chemicals by using an 8-foot scale model of an actual crop dusting airplane which is complete in every detail.

The dust pattern laid down by the airplane over the county's many varieties of fruits, nuts and vegetables will have imbedded into it containers of the chemical products used in agriculture and prepared in this county.

The theme will be carried further by utilizing sky writing as a means of showing the county's name above the Mt. Diablo hills on a painted backdrop.

Small road signs will carry some of the educational phases of the exhibit by pointing out that the chemical industry ranks fifth among the industries in California and its contribution to California's agriculture amounts to over $400 million a year.

"How old am I?"

asks Mrs. George Mosle,
867 Cedar Street, San Carlos, California

"Mommy looks just like a teen-ager," said eight-year-old Terry Mosle, when we snapped this picture. And it's true—as you can see with your own eyes! Like thousands of modern mothers, Betty Mosle looks (and feels) years younger than her age. One big reason: modern household appliances. They free her from so many chores that used to make women old before their time.

Betty, who's thirty and mother of three (Terry, 8; Phillip, 5; Wayne, 2) makes the most of these labor-saving appliances. Do you?

Here's the beautiful part about it: With gas and electricity so cheap in California you can run a houseful of appliances all day for less than half the price of most leading face powders.

Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Anna Turner of Omaha, Neb. He is an attorney in Oakland, and is a resident of that city.

'Fest' Combines Fun, Fixing for Nursery School

The first social event of the Lafayette Nursery School's 1956-57 program was held Tuesday night at the home of Francis and Bernice Bryan, 1063 Lafayette Boulevard.

Dubbed a "Fest," this get-together combined the enjoyment of a purely social evening with the accomplishment of some of the minor equipment repair and replacement jobs necessary in a cooperative school group.

Sanding blocks, repairing books, cutting out story materials and sewing new costumes for imaginative play were the following returning members and newcomers:

Jean Holley, Bernice Bryan, Doris von Couditz, Jean Jonas, Shirley Thanner, Alberta Firth, Sharon Gittelson, Nancy Lober, Pat Mangini, Emma Lee Price, Ruth Stumpf, Rudie Tourtelotte, Mary Dewing, Marilyn Rebertus, June Smith, Betty Zion, Vivian Eckles, Alice Carter, Peggy Cunningham, Betty Sullivan, Elinor Chase, Virginia Byrne, Mary Kasten, Barbara Falconer and Patty Kilbourne.

Rudie Tourtelotte, the school's membership chairman, has announced that, although the enrollment for the two morning groups is now completed, a waiting list is being formed.

Also, there are still several openings in the 4½ to 5½-year-old group, meeting four afternoons a week and featuring the more diversified program made possible by the pre-kindergarten age of the children.

Ward Cockerton 'Eats' Smoke, Heat, Flame

Most people who know Ward Cockerton of Margaret Drive, Walnut Creek, assume that breathing smoke and flame is his greatest joy in life—after all, he's been in the firefighting business for 24 years.

People who have had the chance to watch him close up during an actual fire are also led to believe this—take the training class for Central District firemen held last week, when three buildings on North Main Street were set afire on purpose.

"Except for perspiring a lot, he walked into that billowing smoke and heat like he was at home in there!" said an admiring observer.

"It's not that simple," later said Cockerton, who is generally regarded as the No. 1 fireman of Contra Costa County, and who looks the part despite his lack of height.

"Actually, most firemen learn shallow breathing, and to avoid getting a lungful of smoke, even where there is a lot of it. And, too, crouching helps you get the cleaner air near the floor."

The job of being a top-notch fire-fighter which Cockerton has been drilling into firemen-pupils in the county for two years as instructor for the Junior College District is not as simple as some people may think, he continued.

"Your work starts before you ever get to the fire. On the way, you are looking for specific things, like the smoke in the air, its color, intensity, direction, and the condition and width of the streets, traffic and wind conditions."

"WHEN YOU arrive, you note the nearness of surrounding buildings, how far along the fire is, types of construction, and most of all, whether there may be any life inside the building!"

"That's your first worry. Whether its day or night, a public dwelling or private home, factory, and so forth, will help you to decide, along with neighbors' advice."

To Cockerton, the father of three, approaching a fire is like a platoon leader approaching a fortified position.

"The most important part is knocking down the fire, so it is

Blind Students May Come to Parkmead School

Blind and partially blind children may be admitted to Parkmead School next year, DeWitt Krueger, secretary of the Walnut Creek Elementary School District said last week.

Krueger conferred with several parents of blind children, and expressed sympathy with their proposals that handicapped pupils be allowed to integrate with normal students.

If put into effect, about 28 boys and girls in the central county area would become eligible for admission to Parkmead.

One of the parents, C. E. Gam-

mon of 1851 Almond Avenue, said that his son has attended the Emerson School in Berkeley, under such a program, and the results have been good.

Krueger said that the biggest undertaking involved would be hiring a teacher who knows braille.

Cadillac

Feels Even Better than He Looks!

Ever notice how a man looks when he takes the wheel of his new Cadillac and heads for his favorite highway?

Take a good look the next time you have a chance—and we think you'll see a happy man!

There's just no mistaking the pride and satisfaction that show in his face... or the happiness and contentment that reside in his heart.

And, as any experienced Cadillac owner can testify, he feels every bit as wonderful as he looks! For a journey in the "car of cars" is both a marvelous tonic for the spirit... and a wonderful opportunity for physical rest and relaxation.

It starts the instant he slips into the driver's seat and rests his hands on the wheel. Those deep, soft cushions hold him in perfect comfort... and he is surrounded by beauty and luxury.

Even before he sets the car in motion, some of life's care and worry seem to go out of his day.

And then comes the miracle of Cadillac performance. It's an inspiration just to sit at the wheel... to look out over that graceful hood... and to watch the miles flow gracefully by.

And how easy it all is. Just a gesture of his hand on the steering wheel and the car follows effortlessly and obediently. Just a touch of his toe to the accelerator and the car answers instantly to the command. Just a nudge of his foot on the braking pedal and the car comes to a smooth, safe, silken stop.

Sound wonderful? Well, we sincerely urge you to come in at your first convenience—spend an hour at the wheel—and see for yourself.

We'll be happy to give you the keys... and the car... and some wonderful news about the cost and delivery advantages that you will enjoy if you make your decision for Cadillac today.

Why not stop in and see us soon?

Browns Nab 49ers From Moraga Site

Big Test With NFL Kings Comes Sunday at Kezar

The San Francisco 49ers, who have been bumping heads and sweating off poundage at the St. Mary's College grist-mills in Moraga for the past several weeks, will get an indication of whether it has all been worthwhile Sunday when they face the Cleveland Browns at Kezar Stadium in San Francisco.

The test will be a thorough one, for the Browns are defending National Football League champs and, therefore, the team to beat in the NFL.

THOUSANDS OF FANS have trekked to the Moraga training grounds of these 49ers to watch Coach Frankie Albert send his charges through their paces. Albert, in his fourth year at the helm, has created a new interest in the local pro club.

Popular as a player at Stanford University, and later a great pro with these same 49ers, Albert is rated as one of the best "quarterbacks of all time."

The diminutive left hander was constantly in the headlines via his spectacular play during his playing days, and now as a coach has retained his popularity with the press and the public.

Albert is a well-known figure on the St. Mary's College campus, where he served during World War II as an officer in the Navy's pre-flight training program for cadets.

DURING THAT STAY he played quarterback for the powerful Pre-flight eleven. Perhaps recalling those war years, Albert came back to the Moraga campus this year because, he claims, of its fine and extensive facilities, nearly ideal for a training camp.

It is far enough away from the "city areas" to allow privacy, yet near enough to reach quickly, the new 49er coach claims.

A horde of strapping veterans and rookies are currently on hand at St. Mary's, going through their daily paces to get ready for the fast-approaching season, as well as for arch-rival Browns Sunday.

WITH A GREAT deal of squad trimming and player releasing to be done, there are now close to 50 gridders battling for the 33 squad slots allotted by the league when the season opens.

At present three Contra Costa boys are still in the running for 49er positions.

Assured of a starting role is one of them, John Henry Johnson of Pittsburg. Johnson was an all-county sensation who has established a brilliant reputation through his exploits on the Canadian grid and as a member of the 49ers the past few seasons.

This year he is slated to start at halfback for the local heroes. Sidelined last year by an injured shoulder, Johnson has been completely mended, with his built-like rushes in scrimmages having drawn his coach's praise and spectators' awe.

L. C. JOYNER is another Pittsburg high graduate who comes to the 49ers via East Contra Costa Junior College and the Alhambra Alumni Club. He is rated the fastest man in camp and seems to have an excellent chance of staying with the club.

He was an all-county player at Pittsburg and was all-league while in Junior College.

The third Contra Costa on the squad is John Gonzaga, giant tackle via Mt. Diablo High, East Contra Costa J.C. and the Alhambra Alumni Club.

Gonzaga has been impressive at times with his defensive play, but has lots of veteran competition to buck for the spot.

Bruno Banducci, who rates as one of the best offensive guards in football, hails from Richmond, although his prep football was not played locally. The big lineman, who has been all-pro several years, played ball in Canada last season but was brought back into the fold this year.

USE CROSSWALKS Approximately 40 per cent of pedestrian deaths are due to crossing between intersections. It's not very smart to gamble a lifetime trying to save a minute. Use the crosswalks!

PH Ram Varsity Potential Outlined by Coach Briggs

By MIKE FARMER

Anticipating his first varsity victory this season, Pleasant Hill High School's head football coach, Hal Briggs, this week offered advance comments regarding the team's future.

The ensuing paragraphs contain observations made by the coach in analyzing the Rams' disappointing record and describing the price of a successful season. The transcript of an interview conducted Monday reads as follows:

Q. WHAT IS YOUR opinion regarding Pleasant Hill's prospects in the coming football season?

A. "I think Pleasant Hill will emerge as a 'dark horse' this year. This is actually the first time we have had enough boys with experience returning to the squad. With this depth and experience we should be able to accomplish a great deal."

Q. What is your opinion of the team's record?

A. "The one big problem we have had, and may still have, at Pleasant Hill is a lack of tradition. Tradition wins ball games. By that I mean the ability to come from behind late in the game and turn in a victory at the end. Recovery from an unsuccessful play or a poor decision is all important in football."

Q. What are the first games and your observations regarding them?

A. "Our first game is with Livermore. They have a very strong first eleven, but lack depth. Following Livermore comes St. Mary's, the second and last of our practice games. It will suffice for St. Mary's to say that they are rated prime contenders for their league championship."

These two games will be excellent preparation for the Rams' first league game with Acalanes.

Q. WHICH DVAL teams do you think will be your toughest opponents?

A. "Acalanes, with practically their entire team returning, will probably be the toughest. Then there is Las Lomas, with an impressive record last year and only two men not returning this season."

As always in any DVAL top team list, Pittsburg should be considered. Coach Tony Knapp says he has one of his fastest backfields returning this year."

Q. Will you give a summary of players by position with comments regarding each?

A. "I consider tackles to be the 'big guns' so I will start there. JIM BENTON — JV last year, came along fast at the end of the season, could be an outstanding tackle."

Warren Millham — JV last year, has weight and speed, should be a prospect this year. Tackle could develop into a rugged battle for starting berths between the following: Frank Osgood, Doug Jones, Tom Greely, Dave Prall, Glen Sorenson, and Gary Powell.

Ends — Dick Garren — definitely to be counted upon as one of our better flank men, has hands and speed to make the Rams' end position. Dan Ipson — extremely fast, excellent blocker, pass receiving could be a problem. A surprise could be in store for any one of these boys in making the first squad: Charles Collier, Jack Ulrich, Charlie Scott, Floyd Thompson.

Fullback is also in question. Coming up are Ray Rice and Baron McDonald. Frank Taylor, a transfer, might also be the answer to filling in the gap left by Jim McMillin.

At quarterback we have Al "Butch" Locatelli, who played first string varsity last year and did a very commendable job. He displayed an excellent passing arm as well as skillfully conducting the ground game.

But all is not decided; Butch will have to go all out to hold his position. Mike Mayne, who was ineligible last year, will be ready to go full force this season. By his performance in practice last year, he possesses a keen understanding of the game as well as physical qualifications.

HALFBACK SEEMS to be the strongest position in the Ram lineup. Returning lettermen are: Mike Cereda, Jon Lockwood, Bob March, Mike Farmer.

The two boys filling these positions are going to have a tremendous battle on their hands, not only with the other two experienced lettermen, but from an excellent crop of JV backs. They are Glen Cobb, Joe Santoro, Gaylan Griffen, Jerry Warner, Gary Scott.

Guards could be the most formidable positions in the Ram line. Returning we have: John Turner — one of the most aggressive linemen Pleasant Hill has had for many seasons. Fred Rupprecht — considered the most rugged middle guard in the line-up. This opinion was shared by many opponents last year. I think it will be shared by this season. JV's in contention are Larry Pratt, Ben Foulk, Wayne Robbins.

CENTER IS VERY questionable as to who will be first string. Only a week of practice will tell whether Chuck Exner or Craig McKay will start. We will also have to bring up a junior boy to this position for experience. I am considering Bob Satake, who has displayed rapid progress in his play.

Fullback is also in question. Coming up are Ray Rice and Baron McDonald. Frank Taylor, a transfer, might also be the answer to filling in the gap left by Jim McMillin.

At quarterback we have Al "Butch" Locatelli, who played first string varsity last year and did a very commendable job. He displayed an excellent passing arm as well as skillfully conducting the ground game.

Final Standings in Youth Baseball Leagues Posted

By MEL ALMANNO

Final results are just about in on the Walnut Creek leagues. It will take till next week to compile all winners, pictures, and so forth.

Thompson Electric took the championship for the Coast League behind fine pitching by Danny Colow.

Runner up was Fran Morris, Air Reserve, with Steve Miles pitching fine ball all season.

Sports and Games, winners of the Eastern League, had fine pitching all season from Tom Strain, who also led the league in home runs—12 of them.

Tom is a boy who is gifted with fine control and for a 13 year old, has good size.

No team got more than four hits in any game off him, and his average strike outs was 13 per game.

Rickie Nye also won all his games, and for a boy only 12, was also one of the best pitchers in the league.

Every team had real outstanding players, and to name all the standouts would take plenty of writing.

Hal Stephenson like his dad, Marion, was on hand all year to help a team when they needed a catcher or a ground keeper.

Fellows like Gerry Stub gave their time to keep our park in good shape for the boys. I visited other areas, and leagues, this past week end, and our own leagues were by far the best in every respect.

Many people have asked what next year's plans are, but at the present I can only say that ages, the amount of players, diamond and sponsors have to be checked on.

There will be meetings, and plans worked on all winter we can assure you.

If we can plan on fellows like Vince Graziano, Marion Stephenson, Merv O'Donnell and others, we will even improve over this year!

Some talk has been spent on a winter league, and if it does develop, it will only include four to six teams and eighth grade and new high school freshmen. This league will have to be self-sponsored and only for fun of playing an clearing.

Regular baseball rules would be in effect.

If this column continues, more on this league will be announced. It will be a league for preparing boys for high school ball.

Joe Freitas, the umpire in chief for the leagues, deserves all the praise the fans have given him. Joe loves the kids and many injuries and incidents were prevented because he took control.

We needed Joe and sure hope he is able to take all the hard knocks again next season. Joe has more bruises on him than a fighter ever had.

Still he went on after repairs. Thanks, Joe, for making our program a success!

There will be an award night soon after school starts at the Rec. Center, and all involved in

George Harrison Will Be On US Olympic Swim Team

By ERWIN MATTSON

ONE OF THE BEST pieces of news for Acalanes sports fans was that George Harrison, who still has competition left at Acalanes, won a spot on the Olympic swim team, which will go to Australia this fall.

George, who has won trophies and set records since he began swimming, will go as a member of Uncle Sam's swim relay team. I know of no other school in the county that has ever had a swimmer on the Olympic team.

Mrs. Jane Manske, who lives out Danville way and teaches in the Walnut Creek schools, was an Olympic diver of note.

BARBARA STARK while at Acalanes was a member of the Olympic swim team four years ago, when the meet was held in Finland.

Barbara, like George, had previously set local and national records.

It's remarkable that a school should have two Olympic swimmers.

Congratulations to George for his many fine accomplishments in the swim world. May he always be a winner!

One thing certain—the area can be mighty proud of him. Chances are Oakland will claim him, as it did Barbara Stark — despite the fact both make their homes in Orinda.

I can well remember back several years, when George's older brother was at Acalanes, and one day he told me, "Wait until you see my brother swim—he will make the Olympics some day!" True words were never spoken.

FANS ARE AGOG over the 49ers, who have been hard in training at nearby St. Mary's College under the tutelage of headman Frankie Albert.

Hundreds are at daily work-out and it jumps to thousands whenever scrimmages are announced.

It is difficult to judge the pros, as one tends to forget that every club in the circuit is tough and that on a good day any one team can beat any other.

With a very limited number of clubs, all have some top-notch players. One can very easily be carried away when taking in the workouts of any one team without the opportunity to see the others.

The biggest scarcity seems to lie in good top-flight quarterbacks, of which there are less than 15 in the country.

A boy with good hands and ability to pass well can get into the big money fast if he can become a top-flight quarterback. He doesn't even have to have signal-calling ability. In the pro league the coaches send players in with each play, to give the Q.B. the signal for the next maneuver.

The Cleveland Browns have every play called by Coach Paul Brown, and they are the top club in the top pro circuit.

High school quarterbacks often feel the coach doesn't have confidence in them if the coach calls plays too much from the sidelines. As a matter of fact, a

Pinball Machines Should Be Banned

At request of Sheriff Harry A. Brown, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors again has the opportunity to take effective action against illegal pinball machines.

They can do this by heeding the sheriff's request that they outlaw all pinball machines in the county. By such action the supervisors would not only make the work of the sheriff's office easier—they would also be strengthening good government.

It has long been known that it is virtually impossible to enforce legal operation of pinball machines—both because of lack of manpower and because ordinary pinball machines, in many instances, can easily be transformed into illegal multiple-play machines.

The only sure way to guarantee adherence to the law, as Sheriff Brown pointed out to the supervisors, is to outlaw all pinball machines.

Two years ago such action was recommended by the Contra Costa County Grand Jury. However, the Board of Supervisors dodged the issue and ignored the recommendation.

Since then, most cities in Contra Costa County have passed ordinances prohibiting all pinball machines.

It would make sense—and would be a step for better government—to ban pinball machines throughout the county.

That the supervisors were not exactly enthusiastic to Sheriff Brown's request is not surprising. But it is hoped that they realize what many other citizens realize—that proper enforcement of the law requires banning of all pinball machines.

As The Sun has repeatedly emphasized, the issue is not just playing pinball.

Illegal gambling is usually accompanied by corruption or demoralization of public officials. Through such deterioration, good government is broken down. One evil leads to another and worse evil—on and on.

That's what's at stake—good government.

It's encouraging that the supervisors did act on Sheriff Brown's request to take action for regulating and licensing card rooms in unincorporated areas.

But the complete outlawing of all pinball machines in the county is even more urgently needed.

This time, the supervisors should not evade the problem—but should meet it head-on by heeding the sheriff's recommendation.

Aid Safety Drive!

Contra Costa County has been earmarked as one of the most accident ridden counties in California. In particular, the central portion of the county ranks as the worst in the entire county.

A movement is now under way to raise $25,000 to establish and maintain a full time, professional safety council for the area. Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette is general chairman of the fund drive.

The need for supporting such a project of safety is obvious. In the near future you will be asked to make a membership contribution. It then will be up to you to give, either of your time to help make the safety crusade effective or of dollars so that a permanent headquarters may be established.

The responsibility of safety lies not with "the other guy" it lies with each and every citizen, parent and child.

The contribution that you make will help save lives, prevent accidents and make Contra Costa a better place in which to give.

What They Say

Vacation--- What to Do?

A peek into a typical local home last June would have found an air of anticipation permeating the old homestead.

For Junior was home from school, Dad was looking forward to two weeks of freedom from his labors, and Mom was plain tuckered and needed a rest. In a word, summer was here, and summer means vacation time.

A family conference ensued. Seated around a table, members drew out maps, thoughts and desires were expressed (at rare intervals, even simultaneously) and a hot debate followed. The family had to decide, "What are we going to do during vacation?"

The question was resolved, most likely, by a compromise from all parties; and vacation turned out to be a pretty pleasant time after all.

But with the summer sun still bright, and vacations for the locals still in progress, your Roving Reporter decided to meander into the vacation quandry and find out just how people like to spend their free time during the summer.

Stay home and have a quiet, serene (?) spell, or head for the hills, the beaches, the open road? This is the question.

Here are some of the answers: "I'd agree that it would be nice to stay home," replied Mrs. R. L. Kocher, 69 Lombardy Lane, Orinda, "but I can't help finding things to do when I am home."

With restful stays at home seemingly out of the question, Mrs. Kocher thinks it best just to take what comes along each year.

"But I like to go up to Lake Tahoe," she added.

Noel Jones, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones, 645 Minor Road, Orinda, finds that staying home is fine, even with things to do. At least this year.

"We have a new home," he explains, "so we enjoy taking it easy and putting in some time on the landscaping."

The quiet type of vacation is also preferred by Mrs. Richard W. Kunzman, 3308 N. Lucille Lane, Lafayette. But with three small children, she doesn't always find this too easy a thing to accomplish.

"We like to get up to the snow in the winter," she answered, "but other than that we just stay at home."

Mrs. Stanley DeBilzan of 407 Gladys Drive, Pleasant Hill, prefers staying home, and especially, "attending to our corn crop, which is seven feet tall this year."

"Gardening is one of my favorite pastimes. This is our first year here, so we don't try to run about too much. In June we did visit relatives in Arcadia, though."

The DeBilzans come from South Dakota.

Fatal Fallacies

by Ted Key

"That won't be necessary now!"

Drive, Walnut Creek, admits "I never get a chance to relax at home, with three children, and I don't go for camping."

The Youngs' solution is to travel now and then. Recently they visited her folks in Southern California.

The kids are David, 7, Dan, 5½, and Christine, 10 months.

"We prefer the family type resort, half rustic, but not too much like roughing it," said Mrs. Allan Arno of 148 Camino Posada, Walnut Creek.

THEY HAVE A favorite place in the Trinity Alps near Weaver's. Often, Paul, 16, and Jim, 14, are alone.

Patio barbecue are a fine way to enjoy home, according to Mrs. Harold Markle of 218 Babbette Court, Pleasant Hill, "but I still like bowling a lot."

Recovering from injuries from an auto accident, Mrs. Markle has hopes of getting back to the alleys with a style as good as ever.

Ground Observers To Meet Tuesday Kids Do Bit; Aid Others

The Walnut Creek Ground Observer Post will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Walnut Creek National Guard Armory, 1800 Carmel Avenue, at 8 p.m. Tuesday, according to Mrs. Isabelle E. Salisbury of Lafayette, post supervisor.

A representative from the U.S. Air Force will provide an interesting program. The following day captains, all from the Walnut Creek area, have been assigned:

Monday, Mrs. Robert A. Denton, Tuesday, Mrs. Irene Gunz, and for Wednesday, Mrs. Esther Foreman. Day captains are needed for the other days of the week, and additional volunteers are required in order to man the post on a 24 hour basis.

The public is cordially invited to this meeting. Governor Goodwin J. Knight in a recent statement said, "The people of our country owe a debt of gratitude to these modern Minute Men and Women for their performance of a vitally important service in the national defense."

Letters to The Editor

MASTER PLANS

Dear Editor:

Congratulations to the county planning staff for the exhibits of Pleasant Hill and Moraga master plans which will appear at the International Federation of Landscape Architects Congress. However, let's give credit where due.

The Pleasant Hill plan and principle of the Controlled Manufacturing zone was accomplished primarily through the efforts of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council and its planning and zoning committee.

Let us also remember that the big test of the use of these plans is yet to come. The responsibility for success or failure rests with three county agencies: Planning Commission, District Attorney, and Board of Supervisors. Weakness on their part in the execution of these plans and the use of the ordinances controlling the manufacturing and office zones could destroy the entire purpose of the master plans.

Continued awareness by the people through their local civic organizations is needed. The retirement of Mr. Cummings will also help.

AD BRINGS JOB

Dear Editor:

This is just a note of appreciation for the fine thing you are doing in running free ads for the teenagers who want work this summer.

We are newcomers to this community and our son Bill had applied many places for work without success. However, thanks to the ad you ran for him, he has found a job for a few days and has had other calls which we hope will turn into steady part time work.

Many thanks, not only for the free ad, but for the opportunity given these boys and girls who want work.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

(This week's column is written by Walnut Creek Editor Dick Osborn, and the views expressed can, unfortunately, be attributed to no-one else).

Notice any peculiar symptoms?

Have you eaten all your meals on time this week — especially dinner?

Have you made several frantic trips to the nearest radio-TV store, just in time to find that it had closed for the evening?

Have you found that things just aren't the same at home — or at the office either, for that matter?

Has your wife been going around with a slightly glazed look about the eyes and an indefinite vacant expression that tempted you to reach for the thermometer with one hand and call the doctor with the other?

If any or all of these have happened to you, don't worry about it. It is just like Sun spots or Hurricane Mable. Your family is suffering from Conventionalitis.

To the best of our research staff's knowledge, there has never been an adequate definition of the word Conventionalitis yet, and it is possible that there never will be. Chances are that description will have to suffice.

Take the mad rush to the nearest radio-television store. Walnut Creek Sun reporter Norman Colby was prompted to ask, rather plaintively, "Why does your TV set work perfectly all year and then go on the fritz just when the convention comes around?"

(Anybody that can find an answer to that one will probably be able to answer why the same things happen to sports fans just when the World Series reaches a crucial point. Refer all replies to General Sarnoff.)

And as for the frantic looks at your wife when she walks by in a trance . . . think nothing of it. Remember, the sessions are also on TV from 10 a.m. to noon, and it takes a concerted scheduling of routine to work this in and still keep the appearance of normal household affairs perking along at status quo.

Now what do you do when . . .

Of course, this reaction between husband and wife will vary considerably, depending on the local political climate of the family.

If the household happens to be Democrat, the husband is likely to look slightly miffed upon returning home and finding everything in ship-shape order. "Why didn't you watch the convention and give me the big picture?" queries hubby.

On the other hand, if the household is Republican and everything is slightly out of order, the man of the house is liable to accuse his distaff side of "going over to the enemy camp," or worse, and deliver a succinct lecture on the habits, life and demise of Benedict Arnold.

It really gets complicated when the household is really democratic and husband and wife hold different views . . . politically, that is. We leave it to your imagination to picture the varieties of situations which could arise under these circumstances.

Since "Dr. Silverman" was on vacation when this was written, his understudy, Friendly Intern Osborn would like to warn all of you of one important factor.

THIS WHOLE THING IS JUST BEGINNING. Next week, come the Republicans, and after that it will be an intermittent storm brewing until November. So keep cool, stay relaxed, and don't waste all your ammunition at first.

Remember, there may be somebody you want to take a pot-shot at in November, and if you can only collapse on the couch moaning when your next door neighbors triumphantly clubs home his politics with a subtle point, why you've let your party down!

This peculiar American madness can be lots of fun, though, and it's kind of refreshing to really pitch into the battle of beliefs and convictions after simmering through the summer waiting for the call to arms.

Many Restaurants in Area Not Checked in Two Years

"Senders of anonymous letters complaining about the conditions of some of the food handling establishments are reminded that inspections are not frequent in Contra Costa County," H. L. Blum, County Health officer, stated today.

"Many restaurants have not been inspected for two years. The Health Department's yearly request for personnel to do this work has been turned down again," he said.

Although consideration and action were promised as recently as two months ago, the present six months moratorium of personnel means the continued postponement of any program for safe food and safe small water supplies, Blum added.

"Anyone who is dissatisfied with the sanitation of a food handling establishment should tell it to the management on the spot. It has been our experience that this is appreciated and acted on. Complaints to the Health Department are handled as soon as possible."

He stated, "Although anonymous complaints are investigated, the Health Department appreciates being able to report back to the complainant regarding the general conditions found and the corrections to be made. Names of complainants are not used during an inspection."

Acalanes Folk Dancers Hear Tony Cvietusa

"Frontier Frolic" was the theme for the special party Acalanes Folk Dancers held at the Mt. Diablo High School in Concord August 4.

Programs were covered with pictures of early western scenes and the hall was decorated with posters and a clothesline with colorful clothes hung up to dry. Guests were asked to check their guns before entering the dance floor.

Swimming was offered before the dinner was served. The dinner was cafeteria style and consisted of ham, baked beans, tossed salad and French bread; ice cream and coffee were served for dessert.

Tony Cvietusa from Walnut Creek was guest caller for the evening and Irene McNichols also from Walnut Creek was the other caller.

The committee consisted of Marie and Hal MacDonald, chairmen, of Walnut Creek; Frank and Sally EnEarl, Walnut Creek; Charlie and Helen Reilly, Walnut Creek; Bennett and Reva Tow of Danville and Marie and Roy Echols of Lafayette.

William McKees Back from East

The William D. McKee family of 781 Munga Road, Lafayette, recently returned home after a month spent visiting relatives in the East.

Mrs. McKee and the three children — Becky, 7; Harper, 5, and Josh, 1 — flew to Erie, Pa., a month and a half ago to visit Mrs. McKee's father, Charles Messenkopf, with whom they stayed for a few days. Mr. McKee joined them there.

From Erie the McKees flew to Connecticut, where, at Mystic, they visited Mr. McKee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Harper McKee, at their summer home for a few weeks. McKee's sailing with his brother-in-law, Edwin Seder, in Seder's yacht, from Douglaston, Long Island, to Mystic was one of the highlights of the Erie visit.

Later the entire group went to the home of William McKee's parents at Forest Hills, Long Island. After a few days there the William McKees flew back home.

Miller Reveals Club Needs, Campaign Issues

"The Democratic club movement in California has exceeded our fondest hopes, but the clubs haven't done nearly as much as can be done," was the appraisal made by State Senator George Miller Jr. in an address before Democratic club members in Concord recently.

The Senator suggested an increase in social activities as one way to stimulate the club movement. A club's membership should be a homogenous cross-section of the local populace, and not made up entirely of "alikes" who would associate without benefit of the club, he said.

Miller cited civil rights, farm income and stability of employment as some of the major issues in the upcoming election.

Civil rights is "a moral issue," he said, and should not be reduced to a matter of partisan politics.

"Those who profess a belief in the fatherhood of God must also believe in the brotherhood of man. Racial issues must be settled on that basis, and not on the basis of political circumstances which could change overnight," he added.

Russell Koch, Democratic candidate for the State Assembly, introduced Miller at the meeting. The meeting was sponsored by the Pleasant Hill Democratic Club, and was attended by representatives of six other Democratic clubs of central Contra Costa County.

Convention Post Honors Quinney

Dr. H. R. Quinney, Democratic nominee for Congress for the Sixth District, has been appointed an honorary assistant vice president of the Democratic National Convention.

This announcement was made today by Attorney General Edmund G. Brown, chairman of the California Stevenson Delegation, who proposed Quinney's name for his honor.

Each State delegation is entitled to one such honorary officer, and Dr. Quinney will represent California in this capacity. His name will appear on the official program of the Convention and he will be given a special badge.

The official Democratic group from the Sixth District consists of: State Senator George Miller, Lafayette; Dr. H. R. Quinney, Vallejo; Martin Rothenberg, Pittsburg, and A. L. Allison, Pittsburg. The alternate delegates are Mrs. Marge Freitas, Fairfield, and D. Magnani, Vallejo.

Pedder Tells of 'Positive' Aims

Speaking to county precinct coordinators recently, Jack Pedder, candidate for State Senator from Contra Costa, stressed the "positive theme" for his campaign this fall.

"Eisenhower Progressivism is represented for Contra Costa by the House of Representatives by John Baldwin and in the State Assembly by Donald Doyle. I want to complete that progressive team and give our county the

Baldwin, Doyle To Be Honored

Plans were announced today for a buffet-reception to be held in Martinez on September 29, honoring Congressman John F. Baldwin and State Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle.

The outdoor event will be held at the James F. Hoey Ranch in Alhambra Valley, and is expected to draw more than 400 persons. A cocktail hour will precede the buffet.

Tickets will go on sale immediately in Martinez, Concord, Pleasant Hill and Crockett, according to Jim Ritch of Martinez, ticket chairman.

Lester E. Mullen of Martinez is general chairman of the non-partisan event. Assisting him is Jack O. Fries. Additional committees will be announced later.

Local Builder Given Assoc. Director's Post

Jack Marchant, Lafayette builder, was appointed a director of the General Contractor's Association of Contra Costa County, it was announced recently at the general membership meeting held by the association at the El Nido Restaurant by Harold Parker, president of the association.

Marchant, a second generation builder, is taking the unexpired term of Sherman Balch, who has moved his operation to the Fresno area.

"Competition is extremely keen in locating industry in various areas. If you can get industry into a community and broaden the tax base, the residents gain from such an approach," said Tod Bates, one of the meeting's speakers.

"Contra Costa County has one of the greatest potentials of any county in the Bay Area. However, due to lack of support of the County Development Associations or their local Chambers of Commerce, Contra Costa County has not obtained its full share of industry expanding to the West Coast," Bates said.

Commercial establishments are of great importance to the county's development, Mrs. Iona Booth, manager of the County Development Association, pointed out.

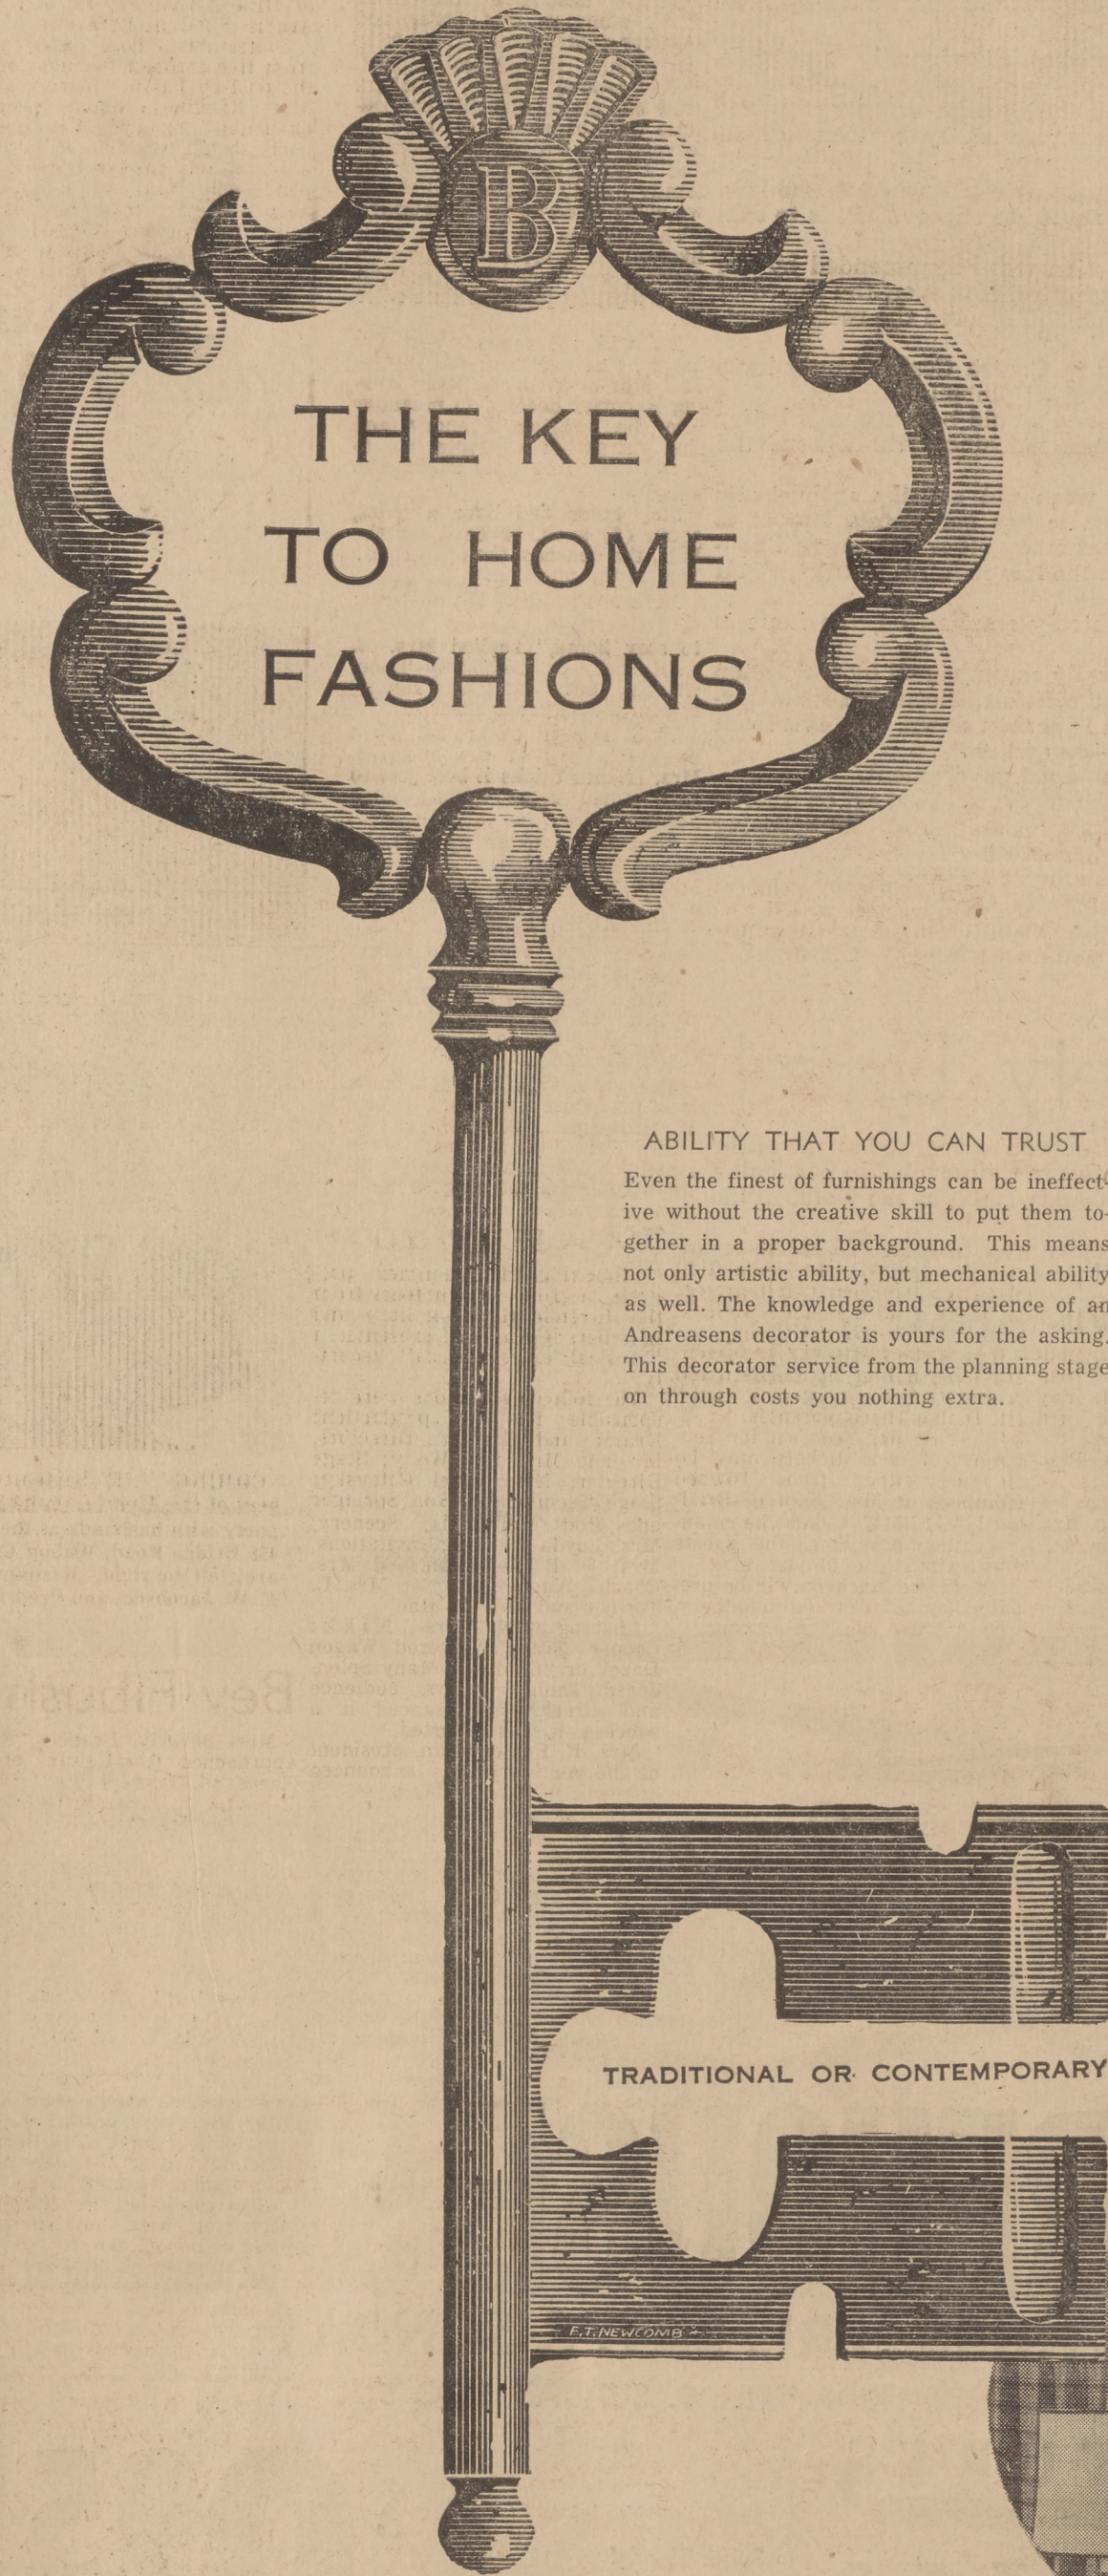

Controlled manufacturing as provided for in the Concord area is a great step towards meeting the needs of relatively small industries, Mrs. Booth stated.

Contra Costa County has an enviable record in the Bay Area she said.

In 1955 it had 18 new industries valued at $5,066,475.00 and 27 expansions valued at $35,000,000.00; or a total of $85,000,000.00. Closest to Contra Costa was Alameda County with $19,000,000.00, Mrs. Booth disclosed.

Aqua Air to Envelop Guests Sunday at 'Jr. Olympics'

Forty swimming and diving events, plus a water ballet, will entertain contestants and spectators at the Valley Art Center's benefit "Junior Olympics" Sunday afternoon at the big blue pool of Mrs. Harold Powell, 5139 Los Arabis Road in Lafayette.

Contestants, boys and girls from five through 16, must be at the pool by 1 p.m., in their suits. Mrs. Rawlings Simon, general chairman, announced today. Car pools should turn left on Los Arabis, the first intersection off Up- per Happy Valley Road, then keep to the left to the end of the road. Mrs. Simon directed.

A variety of appropriate prizes contributed by merchants of Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek will reward winners in the various events. Ribbons will be awarded second and third place competitors.

Mrs. Edgar A. Manske of Danville, former Olympic diving champion, and Miss Sally Freedman of Orinda, current member of the Swarthmore College swim team, will direct the meet. "Eggs" Manske, ex-All American football star, will be master of ceremonies.

"This is not an A.A.U. sponsored event, but an open invitational swim meet with 50 cents admission for both children and adults, to benefit the Valley Art Center's building fund," Mrs. Manske said. Races will be one, two and three 50-foot lengths and age groups will be 5-7, 8-10 and 11-16.

Tickets may be secured at the gate or in advance through Mrs. Lester C. Sharmer in Walnut Creek, YE 4-0119; from Mrs. Stanley Macpherson, AT 3-2966 in Lafayette, and from Mrs. Jack E. Rands, CL 4-2615 in Orinda.

At intermission, a colorful exhibition by members of the Soltau Swim School synchronized swim team will show experts Mary Casady, 13, and Betty Casady, 16, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Casady Jr. of Walnut Creek, in a duet to the scene of "The Proud One."

Betty Casady also will do a water solo, "The Love of Genevieve" and Judy Baumann, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baumann of Orinda, will be seen in a solo, "Offshore."

All three girls, coached by Mrs. Walter Gardner, are slated for national competition in synchronized swimming next year.

ENGAGED TO BE married are Miss Kaye Mauzy of Walnut Creek, and Earl P. Wightman of Berkeley. The future bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Mauzy of 1704 Almond Court, at whose home the news was told. She is a graduate of Las Lomas High School and a medical and dental assistant student at the Merritt School of Nursing, Oakland.

The blanks, provided by the society, may be turned in to Mrs. M. A. Hall, 17 Camino Encinas, Orinda.

The entire luncheon will be prepared by all Towhee members, who will also assist in serving.

Juvenile Hall Auxiliary Has 'Extravaganza'

Climaxing the summer program, a group of volunteers from the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary and members of the staff presented a "musical extravaganza" recently.

The following persons were responsible for the production: Drama and Costume Directors, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Welly; Stage Director, Miss Ethel Cotovsky; Stage Technicians, Ron Springer and Rod McDaniels; Scenery, Mrs. Loyda Remick; Invitations, Mrs. F. P. Loneragan and Mrs. Charles Wagner; Chorus, Mrs. L. Towner and Mrs. M. Rae.

Choreography, Mrs. Nikki Cooper. Titled "Covered Wagon Daze" or "Gold is a Many Splendored Thing," actors, audience and directors pronounced it a success. It was reported.

Mrs. F. P. Loneragan, president of the Auxiliary, has announced an important board meeting will be held September 5.

A permanent program will be evolved, plans for the big Christmas drive, a possible money-raising venture, and an evaluation of the whole volunteered program.

The Auxiliary, which was started in the fall of 1955, attempts to assist the county probation department by supplying special services and supplies otherwise not available to the children at Juvenile Hall, so they may feel their community "cares" and make a better adjustment to their future.

TOWHEE UNIT of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will hold a luncheon and bridge party September 13 at the home of Mrs. Frank Cashin of Walnut Creek, for the benefit of the Center. Shown with Mrs. Cashin (right) is Mrs. Samuel Bradbard, ticket chairman.

Tinay-Rahn Rites Will Be Aug. 31

Mrs. Elsie Rahn of Texas City, Texas, has announced the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Lee Marie Rahn, to William R. Tinay, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Tinay of Lafayette.

A wedding for the immediate family will be held in the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leon F. Rahn, in Walnut Creek August 31.

Mrs. Elsie Rahn is arriving from Texas on August 29 and will be entertained at a dinner celebrating the bride's birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tinay.

Bill and Lee met while attending East Contra Costa Junior College. They plan to make their home in Lafayette.

Bev Fibush is Mrs. Joyce

Miss Beverly Frances Fibush approached the altar of the Thousand Oaks Baptist Church in Berkeley last Sunday to become the bride of Fred J. Joyce III.

Beverly was attended by her sorority sister, Miss Carol Morse of Millbrae, and two of her school day friends, Miss Marilouise Tinay of Lafayette and Miss Betty Jean Imrie of Diablo.

The new Mrs. Joyce is the daughter of Donald H. Fibush of Springhill Road, Lafayette. Fred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Joyce Jr., of Berkeley.

When the couple reached the altar, Beverly's grandfather, Dr. Charles R. Shepherd of Berkeley, officiating over the ceremonies, joined them in matrimony.

Also attending Beverly were her sister, Miss Judy Fibush, the maid of honor, and cousin, Frances Caplan of Menlo Park.

The bride's wedding gown was of antique ivory tulle over satin and was designed with a fitted bodice, cap sleeves and a triple tiered tulle skirt applied in imported lace medallions. A quaint satin bonnet held her fingertip length illusion veil and she carried a cascade effect of white roses, stephanotis and white orchids.

Mint green crystalline over taffeta fashioned the dresses worn by the bride's attendants. They carried yellow roses and wore wreaths of the same buds in their hair, while the maid of honor carried a bouquet of talisman roses.

Mike Joyce of Berkeley was his brother's best man. Ushers were Joseph Tucker, Paul Peterson, Don Morrison, all of Berkeley, Donald Fibush Jr. of Lafayette and Edward Ryan of Parks Air Force Base.

The newlyweds will return next month to their own home on Monte Vista Road, Orinda.

The bridegroom will resume his engineering studies after his release from the service. He is now stationed at Parks Air Force Base.

Miss Barrett Married to John Conway

Married July 27 in Hayward was the former Irene Gertrude Barrett, now Mrs. John H. Conway.

The ceremonies were performed at St. Bedes Catholic Church by Father Francis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. John Simons of Fresno, and best man was Mr. Simons.

The bride was attired in an ecru-lace dress, and wore her grandmother's wedding veil.

She was given away by her father, Mr. Lloyd Barrett of 2451 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Preparation of her wardrobe was aided by her mother, Mrs. Jeanne Barrett.

The immediate family congratulated the couple afterwards at the home of the grooms parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Conway of Hayward.

The new Mrs. Conway is a 1953 graduate of Acalanes High School. She and her husband are employed with an insurance company in Berkeley.

Mr. Conway graduated from St. Mary's High School in Oakland.

They plan to have their honeymoon in October, when their vacations will coincide. The couple are now living on Norton Street, Lafayette.

A more formal open house will be held in Piedmont on Saturday afternoon, September 22, following the first football game of the season in the Berkeley stadium.

Picnic lunches and pool-side playthings will be in order for the swim party, which will begin at 10:30 a.m. Members are asked to bring a small donation for decorating one bedroom of the sorority's chapter house in Berkeley. Cold drinks will be available.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Kenneth Donaldson (Martha Moller), OL 3-2532, and Mrs. Marshall M. McMillan, AT 3-8388.

Garron has been re-elected president, and will be assisted this year by Mrs. Funsten, vice president; Mrs. Richard Brooding, 886 Birdhaven Court, Lafayette, treasurer; Mrs. James Glenn, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Fisher, recording secretary; Mrs. Richard Graffis and Mrs. Dorsey R. Loveseat Sale --- Plus Free Advice ...

"I experienced amazing repercussions by running an ad in The Sun and the Sun Shopping News — and the experience proved positively fascinating as well," says Mrs. Dorothy A. Patterson of 1099 Magnolia Lane, Lafayette.
 "By so doing, I was not only able to make an unusable item serviceable to another, but I got one more glorious chance to feel the cool, soft, velvet touch that only paper greenbacks have."
 "In a happy mood one day, I ran an ad reading: 'LOVESEATS that didn't work, seldom used. Lawson, sage green, pair $100. Best wishes included.'
 "The effect was tremendous; but the highlight was a telephone caller who asked hesitatingly, 'I was wondering — are you by any chance going to get a divorce?'
 "Always enjoying a good gag, I chuckled that I was not (at that particular moment) and she replied sadly, 'Well, all I wanted to say to you was — don't ever, ever do that!' and she hung up.
 "Now, I am $100 richer, momentarily, but my thoughts stray to my unknown friend of 'Divorce Anonymous' who tried to help someone she thought was in need. To her I should like to say, 'Thank you for your thoughtful-ness. There is a great need in the world today for this superb effort you are making to aid mankind. KEEP TRYING!'"

Mattson Trips Include Fire, Bite by Snake

Famous American historical sites, fire on a New York City subway train and swimming in Great Salt Lake were among the highlights of the recent four-week cross-country trip by 10½-year-old LuRette Mattson and her mother, Mrs. LuRene Mattson, of 3574 Terrace Way, Lafayette.
 Not to be outdone by his sister, 14-year-old Kenneth Mattson, during his five-week stay at the Bar 77-P camp in the Trinity Alps, near Hayfork, was bitten by a rattlesnake.
 The oldest Mattson youngster, 15-year-old Jorge, has been visiting with friends at El Portal near Yosemite, and will remain there until the end of this month. Latest reports are that Jorge's vacation is pleasantly quiet.
 The wife and daughter of Erwin Mattson, Acalanes High School boys' physical education director and Sun sports editor and photographer, traveled by train across the United States and back.

PLACES VISITED included New Orleans, the Cypress Gardens, the Everglades, Miami Beach and St. Augustine in Florida; Nassau in the Bahamas (reached by plane); Williamsburg, Va., where a section has been recreated to resemble the early American period; Washington, D.C.; Mt. Vernon, Va.; New York City; Boston, Lexington, Concord and Plymouth, Mass.; Niagara Falls and Salt Lake City.

In New York City, a subway train in which they were riding caught on fire, on the way back from Coney Island. Fortunately, however, the train was in the open, on ground level, and the passengers were let out safely.

LuRette and her mother swam in Great Salt Lake, Utah, where Mrs. Mattson had last swum when she was her daughter's age; in the intervening years the salt content has risen from 23 to 27 per cent. At Salt Lake City they attended an art concert in the Mormon Tabernacle.

KENNETH MATTSON was bitten in the hand by a rattlesnake while he was climbing in a rocky area at the Trinity Alps camp.

Christian Science

That mankind can turn to the divine Mind, God, for intelligence and ability will be emphasized at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda.
 Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" is the Golden Text from Psalms (147:5): "Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite."
 The practical value of understanding God as divine Mind will be emphasized in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (258:21): "The human capacities are enlarged and perfected in proportion as humanity gains the true conception of man and God."
 Included in the Bible readings will be the following advice of Paul to the Philippians (2:5): "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

Your Garden Summer Flowers Can Add Beautiful Touch to Home

A good part of the enjoyment most gardeners get from raising summer flowers is the pleasure of cutting colorful bouquets for indoor arrangements. The nice thing about many summer flowers is that they beautify equally well outside in their natural state and inside in cut bouquets.
 Rated one of the finest of all flowers for cutting by the California Association of Nurserymen, the Transvaal Daisy (Gerbera Jamesonii) gives you bouquets of single or double flowers in yellow, cream, pink, coral, rose, orange and red.
PLANT THE Transvaal Daisy in full sun in mild areas and half shade in hot climates. It will bloom continuously from May to December reaching peaks in early summer and late fall.
 The Wonder of Stafa (Aster Frikarti) grows to one and a half feet with lavender-blue daisy-like flowers set amidst gray green foliage. This perennial provides flowers for cutting from April to December and in mild winter climates bloom almost all year if left unpruned. It does well throughout the state.
 A trio of outstanding cut flowers for summer that should never be forgotten, the Snapdragon (Antirrhinum majus), the Zinnia and Stock (Mathiola) bring an array of many lovely colors to the summer garden. The Snapdragon, a short-lived perennial usually treated as an annual, grows in varying heights from six inches to four feet and in shades of pink, rose, copper, crimson and yellow. Plant it in cool-growing conditions. It does best in cool areas of the state.
 The Zinnia is an excellent hot weather annual available in dwarf to giant sizes in every color except blue. Give it full sun.
 Stock prefers a cool garden home similar to the Snapdragon's. Light, well-drained soil is best for it. Fragrant white, rose, pink, purple, red and cream spikes bloom in the summer and on into the winter.

Mineral, Gem Society Marks Anniversary
 The Contra Costa Mineral and Gem Society held its sixth anniversary meeting at the Women's Club last Friday.
 The program featured Hub Daffoe, past-president of the California Federation of Mineralogical Societies. He spoke on a recent trip to Florida, showed slides of the trip and specimens of Florida Agatized Coral.
 The Contra Costa Society has inaugurated a new series of discussion groups for those interested in lapidary methods, specimen collecting and mineral identification.
 The meetings will be held at the P.G. & E. Building, 1535 Bonanza Street, Walnut Creek, at 8 p.m. on the fourth Thursday of each month.
 On August 23, A. A. Normand will discuss two phases of mineral identification — hardness testing and the use of the refractometer.
 These meetings are designed to provide an exchange of ideas and shop or field helps to cutters and collectors — either beginning or advanced. Anyone interested in minerals or lapidary work may attend.
